Call for Video Courses and Related Resources for the Network Website

As all human beings are facing this global challenge, we want to assure you that the ITI/UNESCO Network is thinking of all its members: the teachers, the students and the staff. We are aware that many of the Network members affected by the outbreak of Covid-19 have to stop the offline classes and cancel a lot of planned events.

Performing arts always have the magic to empower people. We need that more than ever. While physically gathering is not possible, the online exchange of performing arts for the people (especially the students) in isolation/quarantine around the world, can be a meaningful activity to do now.

That is why the Secretariat of the ITI/UNESCO Network calls for Video Courses and Related Resources and contents in field of the Performing Arts. This is a project we call on all the Network member institutions to participate in.

For all the teachers, your articles or works, performing Arts Course videos, teaching experience, workshops, masterclasses, program rehearsals and other related content videos are very welcome to be shared on the Network Website.

For all the students, your own articles or works, program rehearsals and other related content resources are very welcome as well.

The Secretariat of the ITI/UNESCO Network will collect the videos and post them on the Network Website for free study and viewing by home-schooled students.

For the videos and resources:

- Please send the videos or resources via WeTransfer. The video format mp4 or wmv video are preferred. For text the format Word is preferred. Please include a brief introduction and send it to secretariat@iti-unesco-network.org
- The video provider shall own the copyright of the video. In sending it in the provider agrees that the ITI/UNESCO Network will only use the content for the purpose presented in this call. The provider also agrees to comply with the requirements that are mentioned here.
- There is no remuneration for putting it on the website.
- Videos or material may be refused by the artistic committee if they are showing disrespect to others.
- Videos cannot not contain material that is copyrighted by another or others. Any copyright violations need to be handled by the provider.
- The videos are received will be put on the website regularly.

The deadline for receiving videos and materials 31 August 2020. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact: secretariat@iti-unesco-network.org
