Open Call for New “Student Showcase” on the Network Website

The Secretariat of the ITI/UNESCO Network calls the productions of the students of the ITI/UNESCO Network members. These productions can be inspired by the current circumstances, the impact of the virus, conveying the positive energy and creative resilience for human beings to fight against COVID-19, etc. These videos will be uploaded and shown in a new column called “Student Showcase” on the ITI/UNESCO Network website. The creator of the productions will be able to reply to the comments left by the persons who watch their productions.

Requirements for the videos:

- Please send the videos (3 to 5 minutes), via WeTransfer: mp4 or wmv video formats are preferred. Please include a brief introduction that you send to secretariat@iti-unesco-network.org
- The video provider shall own the copyright of the video. In sending it in the provider agrees that the ITI/UNESCO Network will only use the content for the purpose presented in this call. The provider also agrees to comply with the requirements that are mentioned here.
- There is no remuneration for putting it on the website.
- Videos may be refused by the artistic committee if they are showing disrespect to others.
- Videos cannot not contain material that is copyrighted by another or others. Any copyright violations need to be handled by the provider.
- The videos are received will be put on the website regularly.

The videos are being put on the website until 31 August 2020. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact: secretariat@iti-unesco-network.org
